

IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT FOR THE CENTRAL DISTRICT OF CALIFORNIA

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,
Plaintiff,
v.
JESUS RAMOS,
Defendant.

Case No. 22-MJ-1779

ORDER OF DETENTION

I.

On May 6, 2022, Defendant made his initial appearance in this district – by consent to video teleconference - on the criminal complaint filed in the Eastern District of California. Deputy Federal Public Defender Reid Rowe was appointed to represent Defendant. The government was represented by Assistant United States Attorney David Lachman. Defendant did not argue for release and reserved his right to request a detention hearing in the charging district.

☒ On motion of the Government [18 U.S.C. § 3142(f)(1)] in a case allegedly involving a narcotics or controlled substance offense with maximum sentence of ten or more years.

☐ On motion by the Government or on the Court's own motion [18 U.S.C. § 3142(f)(2)] in a case allegedly involving a serious risk that the defendant will flee.

The Court concludes that the Government is entitled to a rebuttable presumption that no condition or combination of conditions will reasonably assure the defendant's appearance as required and the safety of any person or the community [18 U.S.C. § 3142(e)(2)].

II.

The Court finds that no condition or combination of conditions will reasonably assure: ☒ the appearance of the defendant as required.

☒ the safety of any person or the community.

III.

The Court has considered: (a) the nature and circumstances of the offense(s) charged, including whether the offense is a crime of violence, a Federal crime of terrorism, or involves a minor victim or a controlled substance, firearm, explosive, or destructive device; (b) the weight of evidence against the defendant; (c) the history and characteristics of the defendant; and (d) the nature and seriousness of

1 the danger to any person or the community. [18 U.S.C. § 3142(g)] The Court also
2 considered all the evidence adduced at the hearing including the arguments of
3 counsel, and the report and recommendation of the U.S. Pretrial Services Agency.

4 IV.

5 The Court bases its conclusions on the following:

6 As to risk of non-appearance:

- 7 ☒ History of failures to appear
8 ☒ Prior deportations
9 ☒ No legal status in the United States
10 ☒ use of numerous aliases
11 ☒ allegations in the criminal complaint involve sale of narcotics
12 (fentanyl and heroin) to an undercover officer.

13 ☒ No bail resources

14 ☒ extensive criminal history and defendant is currently on probation
15

16 As to danger to the community:

17 ☒ Allegations in the criminal complaint include selling drugs including
18 heroin to an undercover agent

19 ☒ Defendant is currently on probation

20 ☒ extensive criminal history includes felony convictions for drug related
21 offenses, re-entry following deportation, and vandalism, misdemeanor convictions
22 for driving under the influence, and extensive law enforcement contacts for 23 immigration related offenses and failures to appear.

V.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED that the defendant be detained until trial and be transported to the United States District Court for the Eastern District of California for further proceedings The Court directed both government counsel and defendant's counsel to follow up with government counsel in the charging district regarding Defendant's transportation to, and arrival in, the charging district for his next appearance.

The defendant will be committed to the custody of the Attorney General for confinement in a corrections facility separate, to the extent practicable, from persons awaiting or serving sentences or being held in custody pending appeal. The defendant will be afforded reasonable opportunity for private consultation with counsel. On order of a Court of the United States or on request of any attorney for the Government, the person in charge of the corrections facility in which defendant is confined will deliver the defendant to a United States Marshal for the purpose of an appearance in connection with a court proceeding.
